

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Women's Basketball

2006 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

8 ACC Championships 21 National Tournament Appearances 11 Sweet Sixteens 10 Elite Eights 4 Final Fours

Friends of Maryland Women's Basketball—Winter 2008

ACC Player of the Year
Crystal Langhorne

ACC Scholar Athlete
Crystal Langhorne

ACC—All Conference
1st Team-Crystal Langhorne
1st Team-Kristi Toliver
2nd Team-Marissa Coleman
3rd Team-Laura Harper

Wooden Award Finalist
Crystal Langhorne
Kristi Toliver

Sports Illustrated
All American
1st Team-Kristi Toliver
2nd Team-Marissa Coleman
2nd Team-Crystal Langhorne

Career Scoring Record
1) Crystal Langhorne -2163
2) Vicky Bullett-1928

Career Rebounding Record
1) Crystal Langhorne-1188
2) Vicky Bullett-968

Career Field Goals Record
1) Crystal Langhorne-850
2) Vicky Bullett-816

Career Assists Record
1) Debbie Lytle-583
2) Kristi Toliver-554

Career Blocked Shots Record
1) Laura Harper-196
2) Kris Kirchner-186

Season Assists Record
1) Tara Heiss-249
2) Kristi Toliver-248

ALL-TIME MARYLAND GREATS Honored Players

Tara Heiss

#44, 1975-1978

Jasmina Perazic

#4, 1980-1983

Vicky Bullett

#23, 1986-1989

Shay Doron

#22, 2004-2007

Crystal Langhorne

#1, 2005-2008

Tournament Time

March Madness hits College Park

If you haven't caught the March Madness bug yet, get ready. 1st and 2nd round tournament action is headed to College Park, with the Comcast Center as a host site for the fast and furious early games that become season makers and / or breakers, depending on your team, seed, and conference. As anxious basketball fans await selection Monday to determine the path their team must take to make it to the Final Four, Terp fans know that their team will have an incredible advantage of playing in front of their hometown fans—a group that attended the regular season in droves and created a great atmosphere for the Terps to thrive.

The Terps enter the tournament with a 30-3 record, including wins over Duke, LSU, Notre Dame, Pitt and Oklahoma. This is the last opportunity for our seniors to avenge last year's early exit from the tournament, a huge motivator for the entire season. Add to that a disappointing finish in the ACC Tournament, an incredible talent base, Brenda's full time return, along with many intangibles and you get a team that has the potential to play long into the tourney! March Madness has arrived—enjoy!

Crystal Langhorne shoots over the outstretched hand of a BC defender during recent ACC Tournament action.

AP Photo

In the Rafters

Shay Doron and Crystal Langhorne join an elite group.

Shay Doron's and Crystal Langhorne's names top many categories all over the Maryland Women's Basketball record books. Now and forever they will appear in the rarified air of the Comcast Center rafters. They join all time Terp greats from both the men's and women's teams who have had the great distinction of having their jersey honored. Shay and Crystal join the elite group of all-time Maryland greats Tara Heiss 1975-1978, Jasmina Perazic 1980-1983 and Vicky Bullett 1986-1989.

Shay Doron, a crowd favorite, who played for the Terps from 2004-2007, was honored at a special halftime ceremony on January 18. After a long trip from Israel, Shay posed for pictures with her trademark good natured smile and signed countless autographs during and after the game.

Following a thrilling senior day victory over Florida State, Crystal Langhorne was honored. A

"...there will be many great players that come through here at Maryland, but there will only ever be one Crystal Langhorne!" Coach Brenda Frese fierce competitor on the court, a full house was treated to the lighter side of Crystal, with her impromptu address to the crowd, thanking her teammates, coaches, fans and family.

Babies (yes, that's plural!)

Markus and Tyler make a timely appearance.

Head Coach Brenda Frese gave birth to twin boys, Markus and Tyler on February 17. With a prodigious sense of timing, the boys arrived with just enough time for a snack and a nap before the big game with ACC foe Duke. The Terps inspired play led them to a victory on the Blue Devils' home court, a feat that has eluded the Terps since the 1999-2000 season.

Coach Frese returned to the sidelines one week later, for the pre-game senior day ceremony. She met the team in the locker room at the half and returned to the sidelines to lead the team to a thrilling, overtime victory against FSU.

Now back with the team full time, Coach Frese is happily juggling new coaching responsibilities as the Terps head into post-season play.

Maryland by the Numbers

- 3 million library books
- 258,000+ alumni
- 25,000 undergraduate students
- 8,337 residence halls direct Internet connections (every student!)
- 6,029 bachelor degrees awarded (2004)
- 3,563 total faculty
- 1,200 acre campus
- 335 employers recruiting on campus
- 270 buildings
- 100+ majors
- 76 programs ranked in the top 25
- 36 residence halls
- 34% students of color
- 27 Division I, NCAA teams
- 18/1 student-faculty ratio
- 5 - 500-pound bronze Terrapins
- 2 indoor, 1 outdoor swimming pools
- 1/1 male—female ratio

ONE GREAT WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Women's Basketball Banquet

April 13 set as end of season celebration.

Where and when the 2007-2008 season ends has yet to be determined, but the celebration to honor this great team is set. Plan to join the women's basketball players, coaches and staff for their annual end of season banquet, scheduled for Sunday, April 13 at 1:00pm. The banquet will be held at Samuel Riggs IV Alumni Center on the University of Maryland campus. The cost for adults is $60/person and for children ages 12 and under is $30/child. Reservations are required. Please contact the women's basketball office no later than Friday, March 28 at 301-314-1747 to reserve your space.

If you plan on attending, be sure to bring your Kleenex. The banquet will feature a look back at the very memorable careers of our seniors, a trek that is sure to inspire a few tears. Keep the tissues handy, because while the script for this season is still being written, a season review video, generally brings a few more tears (of joy) to the surface!

Additionally, you can bid on basketball memorabilia at the silent auction and page through senior scrapbooks completed by Rebounder volunteers that will be displayed and presented.

Summer Camp

Camp info & registration: www.MarylandWBBCamps.com

Summer might be synonymous with vacation for a lot of folks, but for aspiring Terps and basketball playing girls at every level, summer is a great time to work on your game. Registration for Maryland Women's Basketball Camp is now open. Take your pick as either a day camper, commuter, or overnight camper and workout at the same place the Terps do! Campers are instructed and supervised by Maryland Women's Basketball Staff, players and great high school coaches.

You can find all the 2008 summer camp information online at: www.MarylandWBBCamps.com. There's a link to our new and improved online registration there also. Space is limited in all camps, so please register early to reserve your spot!

GO TERPS!

He never experienced Maryland Women's Basketball.

"The only thing we have to fear is fear itself..."

On March 4, 1933, in his first inaugural address, President Franklin D. Roosevelt stated,

University of Maryland
Women's Basketball
0726 Comcast Center
College Park, MD 20742